

AISHA FESOLA ONOLA

CONTENT WRITER | EDITOR | CONTENT MARKETING

Lagos, Nigeria | contact@aishaonola.me | read.aishaonola.me | aishaonola.me

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Content writer and editor with hands-on experience founding and independently operating a digital publication, from concept through audience growth. Skilled in long-form explainer writing, editorial research, email marketing, and content performance analysis, with a track record of owning the full editorial pipeline: research, writing, editing, publishing, and distribution, as a solo operator. Adept at translating complex political and economic topics into clear, accessible content for a young Nigerian audience.

EXPERIENCE

The OffScript | Founder & Editor | Remote | Jul 2026 - Present

- Founded and independently operate The OffScript, a weekly explainer newsletter covering politics, economics, and culture for young Nigerians, growing the subscriber base to 100+ within the first few weeks of launch with zero paid marketing spend.
- Researched, wrote, and published long-form explainer stories to date, translating complex economic and political developments into accessible weekly content on a consistent Friday publishing cadence.
- Own 100% of the editorial workflow as sole operator: content planning, writing, editing, email distribution via MailerLite, and website management, while tracking weekly open, click, and subscriber data to inform editorial and audience-growth decisions.
- Plan and execute newsletters, event follow-ups, partnership outreach, and audience-growth campaigns across email, communities, and direct outreach.

HRA Systems | Founder's Associate | Remote | Nov 2025 - Present

- Research markets, competitors, vendors, events, and business opportunities, then turn findings into clear briefing notes, reports, trackers, and recommendations.
- Draft and organize internal documentation, stakeholder communications, project updates, and working materials across multiple startup initiatives.
- Coordinate cross-functional projects and follow-ups, managing timelines, action items, dependencies, and deliverables from research through completion.
- Build knowledge and workflow systems in Notion and Trello to keep information organized, accessible, and current.

Proten International | Outsourcing Intern | Hybrid | Jul 2025 - Oct 2025

- Supported employee communications, recruitment, onboarding, workforce administration, and HR documentation using Zoho and SeamlessHR.
- Coordinated with internal teams and outsourced employees, resolving day-to-day issues and keeping communication and onboarding workflows moving.
